The following guidelines have been prepared by the CSCB to assist corporate members and their employees when they meet with clients to sign the general agency agreement and standard trading conditions.

GUIDELINES FOR THE COMPLETION OF THE GENERAL AGENCY AGREEMENT AND STANDARD TRADING CONDITIONS

It is important to remember that the General Agency Agreement (GAA) and Standard Trading Conditions (STC) are legally binding contracts. Clients should be encouraged to read these documents before signing them. It is recommended that all signatories initial each page of the GAA and STC.

Following are some additional considerations:

1. Who can sign the GAA/STC on behalf of the client when that client is an incorporated company?

If possible, obtain two signatures from individuals authorized to sign on behalf of an Incorporated company. Their titles should also be indicated. If possible, have the corporate seal affixed and ensure that the name of the client company corresponds exactly with the name on the corporate seal. In many jurisdictions a corporate seal is no longer required. In that case, it is important to verify that the persons signing the agreement have the authority to do so. In instances where the signatory is not an officer but has authority to sign, attach a copy of the corporate resolution granting this authority.

2. Who can sign the GAA/STC on behalf of the client when that client is not an incorporated company?

Unincorporated companies, associations, partnerships or sole proprietorships require the signature of at least one and preferably two duly authorized signing officers, partners or owners. Always insert the title or position of the person, i.e. president, partner. These signatures must be witnessed by another individual of "lawful age".

3. How do we proceed if amendments are made to the GAA and STC?

All signatories should initial any changes to the agreements.

4. Do the documents need to be originals or can we retain photocopies for our records?

It is always preferable to have a signed original in your possession. It is recommended that you take a minimum of two copies of the documents to your client for signing. One original can be left with the client and the other can then be returned for safekeeping in your own office.
